

The Best of Braddock Awards Winners for 2009/2010

Congratulations to our winners for demonstrating their can-do leadership and personal commitment to helping fellow citizens and improving their community.

Braddock District Citizen of the Year
H. Duane Murphy

Braddock Young People of the Year
Kelsey Rose and Melissa Sbrocco

Neighborhood Enhancement or Beautification – Individual Homeowner
Fernando Restrepo

Neighborhood Enhancement or Beautification – Community Association
Michael Walsh, Woodwalk HOA

Most Can-Do Local Public Employees Working on Issues in Braddock District
Norma Lopez, Janet Hubbell, Tilly Blanding, Paulette Whiteside, Sarah Allen, Jackeline Fernandez Reyes

Most Can-Do Federal Public Employee Working on Issues in Braddock District
Mike McMahon

Most Outstanding Business People in Braddock District
Jules and Nicky Verster

Club or Organization Making a Difference in the Braddock District
Burke / West Springfield Senior Center Without Walls

Special Achievement Award
Tommy Salvi

Join Braddock Supervisor John Cook and the Braddock District Council of Community Associations on Tuesday, July 13th to publically honor our Best of Braddock Awards winners and to recognize the many community volunteers who have contributed to Braddock District activities.

We begin with the festive Braddock Picnic (serving starts at 6 PM) in the big Kings Park Library meeting room followed by the official Awards ceremony. All residents of Braddock District communities are invited to the picnic and to greet our honored Awards winners.